Day Delegate Rates are quoted per person per day and include the charge for the main meeting room.

The College reserves the right to review the rates; normally three months notice of alteration will be given to the Organiser, but this is subject to the pressure of inflation. The College also reserves the right on the final allocation of rooms, but will do everything in its power to ensure that rooms booked for the conference are used.

All of the prices quoted above are subject to the addition of VAT at the standard rate.

NB Please note these prices are valid until 31 December 2010
